

Pennsic War is My Home

by Kyppyn Kirkcaldy

(To the tune "Country Roads" by John Denver)

Almost there now, Cooper's campground
Butler County, Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania
Life is old there, older than the trees
Younger than the mountains,
It's the place I want to be.

Pennsic War, it's my home,
It's the place that I belong
Pennsylvania, man, I love ya'
Pennsic War, It's my home

Battle Comin', Dragon calling,
Tiger's waiting, war's on the horizon
Banner's wavin'; King calls me to the siege,
Fight until I've fallen'
Back to camp to drink my mead.

Pennsic War, it's my home,
It's the place that I belong
Pennsylvania, man, I love ya'
Pennsic War, It's my home

I see the fire burn in the camps from Mount Eislinn
Drumming fills the air and tells me where I want to be A drink in my hand and sharin' stories with my friends,
We talk about wars of yesteryears, wars of yesteryears!

Pennsic War, it's my home,
It's the place that I belong
Pennsylvania, man, I love ya'
Pennsic War, It's my home
